

ISSUE BRIEFINGS

Monthly Conference Calls on Critical Global Events and Trends

Over the past seven years, Ergo has conducted more than 400 projects in over 90 countries. In the course of our work, we collect and analyze a tremendous amount of valuable intelligence on the most important global issues affecting businesses today. We share many of these insights in our Issue Briefings conference call series, enabling clients to profit from Ergo's rich institutional knowledge base, which is expanding and deepening by the minute.

Ergo goes beyond the headlines of the major events and trends in emerging and frontier markets and explores the issues that are underreported in the mainstream media. Our Issue Briefings cover a wide range of sectors and geographies, such as:

These calls are conducted by Ergo personnel who cover the issue, our trusted frontline experts, or both. Backgrounds include:

- One of the CIA's senior Iran analysts until 2011
- A Chinese business executive and advisor to prominent political figures
- A Baghdad-based advisor to Iraqi politicians and businesses
- The CIA's former head of Transnational Issues and Chief Strategy Officer
- A former White House National Security Council official and UN diplomat

A subscription to Ergo's Issue Briefings conference call series includes:

- 1 A monthly hour-long conference call with Q&A
- 2 A written synopsis of the call
- 3 A recording of the call
- 4 Subsequent access to the call leader for private conversation
- 5 Access to archive of recordings and synopses of previous calls

Clients will have access to these products and services as part of a 12-month subscription. Conference calls are held monthly.
